ALL AUTHORITY By Levi Sides, Jasper, AL

Jesus had lived on the earth. He had been crucified on the Roman cross. He had been buried in Joseph’s new tomb. He had been raised by divine power. Unto His witnesses He had given ocular, tangible, and audible proof of His resurrection. Now, before His ascension to the Father, Jesus says, “All authority hath been given unto Me, in heaven and on earth...” (Matthew 28:18).

In the great moral and spiritual realm, Jesus is supreme. In matters pertaining to religion, His word is final, and His teaching alone should be heard. Unto His authority every word, deed, and thought should be brought into captivity (II Corinthians 5:10).

Unto Jesus Christ all mediatorial authority has been given. “For there is one God and one mediator between God and man, the man, Jesus Christ” (I Timothy 2:5). In the Christian era, it is the privilege of every child of God to go directly and immediately to the throne of grace in the name of Jesus Christ, without the aid or assistance of a human or angelic mediator (Hebrews 4:16).

Unto Jesus Christ all legislative authority has been given. Since He has all authority to legislate or make laws for God’s people, there is no such authority left for any man or group of men. “Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness: that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work (II Timothy 3:16-17). Biblical instruction is all sufficient as a guide in the moral and spiritual realm.

Unto Jesus Christ all executive authority has been given. He is the Lord of lords, and the King of kings. He alone has the divine right to rule and to reign in the hearts and lives of the sons of men. Since the risen Christ possesses all ruling and reigning authority, there is no such authority left for any man upon the earth or any angel in heaven.

Unto Jesus Christ all judicial authority has been given. “For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son” (John 5:22). He alone has the divine right to sit in judgment on the souls of men and to determine their eternal destiny.

Unto Jesus Christ all authority over death and Hades has been given. When the glorified Jesus Christ appeared to John on Patmos, He said unto John: “I am the first and the last, and the living one; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, and I have the keys of death and Hades” (Revelation 1:17-18). Having “the keys of death and Hades,” Jesus Christ has all authority over death and Hades.

Since all authority has been given unto Jesus Christ, it is evident that no such authority is left for any man or group of men.

THE GREAT PHYSICIAN

In the ancient world the physician had an unique honor among men. Not only was he well respected for his profession but he was considered the leading citizen of the community and was often referred to as the "great one".

In order to fill this prestigious position, one had to possess the proper qualifications. He must have the proper endorsement, sympathy for the sick, knowledge of health and disease, a preventive, and a remedy. Jesus, the Great Physician, possesses each of these qualifications perfectly. As the physician for sin-sick souls, Jesus possesses the following qualifications:

1. PROPER ENDORSEMENT. Jesus has the endorsement of Heaven. The goodness of His life, the lessons He taught, the miracles He performed, and His victory over death, all testify to His divine son-ship. At the Mount of Transfiguration God gave a ringing endorsement of Jesus when He said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, hear ye Him" (Matthew 17:5).
2. SYMPATHETIC ATTITUDE. Jesus heard the cry of distress and came (Matthew 9:36-38; 11:28-29; Luke 9:51-56). He suffered with and for mankind. His death on the cross was an expression of His matchless love (Isaiah 53:4). He possesses the same sympathetic attitude toward His twenty-first century children.
3. KNOWLEDGE OF THE DISEASE. Jesus has knowledge of the disease afflicting mankind and the moral and spiritual health to conquer it. No man has so understood human life and its problems (John 2:25). Though never afflicted with the malady of sin, He knew all about it (Hebrews 4:15; 1 Peter 2:22) He points out the cause of it (Matthew 15:18-19), the symptoms of it (Matthew 12:34), and the consequences of it (James 1:15).
4. REMEDY. Jesus has the remedy, His Word (Isaiah 1:18; 53:3; Romans 1:16; James 1:21). This remedy is of proven worth. By it countless numbers have been saved from death and prepared to live in a better world. Though the remedy is infallible, restoration to health is conditioned upon the patient's attitude toward it. The patient may neglect it. He may not completely follow the directions for application. The results are the same: spiritual death. Faith in the Physician and willingness to follow His instructions are necessary (Matthew 7:21; Mark 16:15-16; Acts 2:38; 17:30; 1 Peter 3:21). "The Great Physician now is near, The sympathizing Jesus;...O hear the voice of Jesus."
