FALLING INTO THE “GAP” TRAP

By Ted J. Clarke

NOTE: Next week will have the conclusion of this article.

One cannot avoid the conclusion that Moses used “create” and “made” as conveying equal thoughts as they applied to God’s creative work. Third, since this is the case, one does not have to be a “scientist” to be smart enough to see that when Moses said in Exodus 20:11, “for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is,” he was talking about the complete six day creation event of Genesis 1, including verse 1, “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” For Moses, what God “made” and what God “created” were all connected to the great creation chapter of Genesis 1:1-31, a six day creating/making with no time for a “gap” of millions or billions of years.

Nehemiah 9:6 is one of the most inclusive verses in all the Bible of all of God’s creative activity, and Nehemiah says that God made (asah) it all!

Thou, even thou, are Lord alone; thou hast made the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things therein, and thou preservest them all and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

If God made all things that are in the heavens and earth, as both Moses and Nehemiah say, that would include the great whales, winged fowl, and man too. Genesis 1:21,27 says that God created these life forms, proving again that the Bible writers used the terms interchangeably. There is the alleged differences between “create” and “make” as those terms apply to all events in Genesis 1:1-31.

Jesus and Moses

Jesus tied together the whole chapter of Genesis 1 into a unified creation in Mark 10:6. Christ combined Genesis 1:1 with 1:27, placing man here on earth “from the beginning of the creation,” not some millions or billions of years later. If the Lord was talking about Genesis 1:1 & 27, and it ought to be obvious that He was, do we not contradict Him if we contend for any gap theory of earth’s history? The Arndt, Gingrich, & Danker Greek-English Lexicon (2nd ed.) notes that the word Jesus used for “creation” (ktisis) refers to the “the sum total of everything created...from the beginning of the world...Mk 10:6” (pp. 455-56).

Genesis 1:1,27 In the beginning God created verse 1	←	Mark 10:6 But from the beginning of the creation God
So God created man...male and female created He them verse 27	←	(God) made them male and female

KEN UPCHURCH WRITES...

What more blessing could we possibly ask for than to be working with people who have an interest in souls and the support of works that endeavor to teach one more soul the Gospel of Jesus Christ? I suspect the word to describe people who ask for more than that is "ungrateful". May it never be heard from TZ 2000 or anyone associated with this great and wonderful work.

You good people make the effort possible. You support so many projects, schools, individuals and congregations in Northern Tanzania and other countries it seems at times to me, anyway, that you are everywhere all the time doing such magnificent things in the Kingdom. I stand in awe of your faithfulness and love for the lost.

Thank you for (12) years of helping TZ 2000 and the missionaries, both native and American, the church both large and small congregations. I sometimes wonder in my own mind if each of you fully appreciate just how much we depend and thank God for you every day. My hope is that you do appreciate the fact that you are not forced to help but you do it because it needs done and you are willing to let the Lord make you able. I am sure you believe that as well.

Thank you for every prayer, every dollar, every good wish, every single act of kindness, sacrifice and love you have given to this work. There may be some mission work that has more supporters but ours from the beginning have given themselves first, that is very, very special. Thank you all you and thank God for you.
 Just Ken

ANDREY KOSTINE WRITES...

Dear Brethren,
 From the bottom of our hearts we thank you for your December support. We are really grateful for your generosity. We would not be able to make it without you. Thank you for your continued support.

We trust that you had a wonderful holiday. We enjoyed ours. We went to Florida to spend it with Angelina's family. The children thoroughly enjoyed it as well and we all go to enjoy warmer weather.

The second quarter will end in a couple of weeks. It is amazing how the time flies by so quickly. The classes are challenging but I do enjoy them. I stay pretty busy. In April, God willing I will go to Murmansk, Russia with Brother Bland and some other brethren. I am looking forward to that trip.

We love and appreciate you and always have you in our prayers.
 In Christian Love,
 Andrey Kostine and Family
