THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HOW TO GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE

By Mid F. McKinty Abilene, Texas

SPECIAL NOTE: This was given by George Welker to his Bible class on December 13, 1998. George's teaching will continue with us.

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low persuasive voice. How you say it often counts more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly and keep them faithfully, no matter what it costs you.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If criticism is needed, criticize helpfully, not spitefully.
4. Be interested in others—interested in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and families. Rejoice with those who rejoice; with those who weep, mourn. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel that you regard him as one of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries and disappointments under a smile. Laugh at good stories and learn to tell them.
6. Preserve an open mind on all debatable questions. Discuss but don't argue. It is a mark of superior minds to disagree yet be friendly.
7. Let your virtues, if you have any, speak for themselves, and refuse to talk of other's vices. Discourage gossip. Make it a rule to say nothing of another unless it is something good.
8. Be careful of another's feelings. Wit and humor at another's expense is rarely worth the effort, and may hurt where least expected.
9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Simply live so that nobody will believe them. Disordered nerves and a bad digestion are common causes of backbiting.
10. Don't be too anxious about your dues (what is due you). Do your work, be patient, keep your disposition sweet, forget self and you will be rewarded.

Suggestion: Put a copy over the kitchen sink and read it while you wash dishes. Put a copy on the table by the bed and read it before retiring at night. Put a copy on your desk, in your automobile (but don't read it while driving), in a frame and place it on the wall, etc.

Let's try to put these suggestions into practice. These are principles from the scriptures written in everyday language.

KEN UPCHURCH WRITES...

It doesn't take a rocket scientist or someone who is skilled in counseling to know that our supporters for TZ 2000 cannot be confined to just being generous, kind and faithful in your support of this great work but you are, above everything, doing what you do because you are Great Amateurs—you do it for the LOVE.

Thank you for loving the truth, loving those who are willing to go and teach it, and thank you for all the good you have done for the lost in Tanzania. That is an undeniable fact.

Between God blessing this work and the missionaries that have done such a wonderful job and the supporters of the work-how could TZ 2000 not have been a success?

You are wonderful and just the finest people anyone could hope for and a blessing beyond belief. Thank you so very much. You are the best of the best and we love everything about you. May God continue to bless the work and bless each one of you.

Just Ken
