

WEST SIDE WINDOW

Volume 21, Issue 5

February 1, 2015

(Cont. from page 1) When we are unable to get satisfaction, it is most likely because we are looking in the wrong places—we are consulting the wrong sources. Let us pursue God alone. “As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness; when I awake, I shall be satisfied with your likeness” (Psalm 17:15).

About Marshall and Lisa,

Marshall has been in BMH where he had a pace-maker placed. He was released on Friday and Lisa is in Community North in Indianapolis with no visitors requested at this time. Lisa stated she would love to have cards and was inquiring about the West Side sick. The Staggs' son, Marlon, flew in on Thursday. Let's remember both of the Staggs with showers of written encouragement. Following is Lisa's address:

Community North Hospital
7150 Clearvista Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46256

From the West Side Archives:

You judge whether or not God accepts excuses:

1. I can't—"I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me." Phil. 4:13
2. "I haven't got the time"—"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God." Matt. 6:33
3. Get someone else—"Here am I. Send me." (Isa. 6:8)
4. I am too tired—"They that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength."
5. I know I ought to—"To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." (James 4:17)
6. I will, some other time—"Now is the accepted time." (2 Corinthians, 6:2)

This and That.....

The food pantry is in need of canned peas, corn and mixed vegetables as well as peanut & jelly. If you would like to contribute monetarily, please see the elders or Kendall. The revenue for the food pantry will no longer be taken out of the church treasury but will rely on private donations. Thank you for your generosity in this project that is ongoing throughout the year.

Last chance to donate your old reading glasses to the people of India. Mike and Gary will be leaving for India on Feb. 5th and will be glad to deliver them. It has been relayed to us that reading glasses are a very appreciated gift in that country. Receptacle for the glasses is near the east entryway.

Lads to Leaders and Leaderettes' convention is coming up soon on April 3rd– April 5th in Louisville, KY. The youth here at West Side are geared up in their respective projects and are working hard to show West Side proud of them in the Lord's work. Around the building, you will hear the debate teams, song leading, speeches, readings, puppeteers, and numerous other activities being carried out to prepare the youth for future leadership and involvement in the church. Team West Side is proud and determined and ready to go south. The theme of all projects in 2015 is "One". Go team go!

About Mike and Gary's Trip to India

Mike and Gary will be departing Chicago on Feb. 5th for their trip to India. Their destination is Hyderabad, India, where they have four objectives:

1. To ground those who have been converted from denominations
2. Hold gospel meetings to convert more souls into Christ.
3. Look for a suitable place to build the preaching school.
4. Get to know Ronnie Gootam.

They will be returning on Feb. 18th
Love and Godspeed to them in their travel and in their endeavors.

Satisfied

By Bart Warrren

Most of us are desperately longing for satisfaction, but do not know how to obtain it (such has always been the case, not just since 1965).

It is common to hear athletes claim that they will not be satisfied until they are champions. Therefore, they work with dogged determination and tenacity to improve their bodies and their skills. Yet, even with a championship ring on their finger, they still ask, "Is this it? Is this really all there is?" True satisfaction is not to be found with sports.

This is also common in the business world—there is no satisfaction until one is making more money and has reached the top of the corporate ladder of their particular profession (and even then, such turns out to be a hollow / empty experience). True satisfaction is not to be found in personal achievement either.

Things such as this are merely idols that we create. These counterfeit gods lead to our demise and destruction.

The key, of course, is Jesus Christ. Augustine said it this way about the Lord: "... you have made us for yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in you." We will never be truly satisfied until He is the source of our satisfaction! We will continue to be restless ... looking for answers ... until we discover that such can only be had by a deep connection with heaven.

Consider these divine words of wisdom: "The fear of the LORD leads to life, and whoever has it rests satisfied; he will not be visited by harm" (Pro 19:23).

Jesus said, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied" (Matt 5:6).

In speaking with the Samaritan woman at the well of Jacob, "Jesus said to her, 'Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life'" (John 4:13-14).
