CHURCH ATTENDANCE IS ESSENTIAL By Garland M. Robinson

The Bible commands it! Matthew 6:33 says, “But seek ye FIRST the kingdom of God, and his righteousness...” FIRST doesn’t mean second or third, it means above and before everything else!

Regardless of a person’s view of things, what is right is God’s way, not what seems right to men. Listen to the scriptures: “There is a way that seemeth right unto a man but the end thereof are the ways of death” (Proverbs 14:12; Jeremiah 10:23). “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter in the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father...” (Matthew 7:21). “And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say” (Luke 6:46)? God’s way is for his people to assemble and worship him according to the pattern of the New Testament!

Jesus came to this world to redeem men from their sins. “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Titus 2:11-14). Those who have “obeyed the gospel” have been purchased out of the world into a new life in Christ (II Corinthians 5:17). We should therefore walk worthy of our calling (Ephesians 4:1). Our attention is now focused on righteousness instead of ourselves (Matthew 6:33). Those who work righteousness are accepted with God (Acts 10:35).

Church attendance is essential in working righteousness because it is putting spiritual things first! Hebrews 10:25 commands, “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together...” If and when one seeks righteousness, where else would he desire to be that could be of greater benefit? How can it be said that one is putting the kingdom FIRST when he/she chooses to be somewhere else at church time? Remember, the church is made up of the saved, not the lost. We have been “called out of the world” (I Peter 2:9). It is the church the Lord is coming back to save (Ephesians 5:23).

BOBBY LIDDELL WRITES...

Dear brethren:

We stand at the beginning of a new year, and a new decade, with renewed hope and increased determination to accomplish all we can in serving the God of heaven and earth. Together, dear brethren beloved, we can do all that our Lord would have us to do, for He requires no more of us than is possible. Thus, we begin 2010 with the prayer that our benevolent, compassionate Creator will continue to bless us, as He has so abundantly in the past, with the opportunities and resources to carry out the vital work of equipping faithful men to preach the saving Gospel of Christ.

Your contributions, whether to support students, provide services to them, or help with specific needs, make possible the preparation of preachers who are dedicated to evangelizing the world. To know that you are taking before the throne of God your daily prayers for them, for us, and for our work, brings us comfort and rejoicing. Your kind, thoughtful calls, letters, notes, and words of encouragement lift our spirits and cause us to give thanks to our Father.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for all you do to help in the work of the Memphis School of Preaching. We join in the sentiment of Paul, who wrote: "Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers" (Eph. 1:15-16). Our prayer is that God will richly bless you in 2010!

Sincerely,
 Bobby Liddell, Director

YOUNG MAN, MARRY A MODEL

By Mo Hafley

Yes, that's right, if you want to have a happy marriage marry a model. Now before you jump to conclusions because of this title let me tell you quickly that I am not talking about the Hollywood cover girl model. I am talking about the instructions given to the youthful king Lemuel by his mother in Proverbs 31:10-31.

When in my youth I remember these 21 verses and thinking every girl should read this because it is about girls and for girls. Then as I grew a little older, still in my teens, a favorite Bible class teacher had us memorize this passage. Then I began to realize that this scripture wasn't just for women. I saw in these verses characteristics that I needed to look for in a young lady. Before this the only qualifications a girl had to have was that she be popular and pretty. I don't have to tell you what a lasting relationship you can build on popular and pretty. Statistics prove that you are playing with dynamite when those are the only characteristics you look for. In this chapter, Proverbs 31, I saw the real worth of this one whose "price is far above rubies."

He shows us her energy. She is up and going before the dawn. She doesn't love sleep. She takes care of her husband and her children and all her domestic duties then she is free to take care of the business outside her home. In her business she is not slothful. She not only can give instructions as to how something is to be done she is willing to do it herself. Her work is not drudgery but a joy. It is more fun to work with someone who whistles while they work. More work gets done too.

Also there is wisdom in her work. She is organized. Her God is directing her hands. Her hands are constantly caring for and sharing with others less fortunate than herself. She knows too well it is more blessed to give than receive (Acts 20:35). She is selfless. Her husband and her children remember to praise her. Many times today mom is forgotten. We become spoiled because she is always there always doing. I remember hearing that "Man may work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done." Not much has changed has it? She is usually the first one up and unless there's a ball game on she's the last to sleep. How nice a "thank you sweetheart" would be every so often.

Don't try to reward her with a tombstone or with sweet sounding words as she is laid to rest. Young man, marry a model, and be one yourself.
