MAN BECOMES A 7TH-DAY ADVENTIST BY READING THE BOOK OF MORMON!

By Dan Jenkins

We have been so blessed by hearing Glenn Colley this week. He has made everyone who has heard him think! The title of this article is not mine; it comes from a powerful point he made in his lesson on Sunday morning. By the way, if you want to hear that lesson, it is available on our website—you need to hear it!

It is amazing how the most profound truth becomes so obvious with the simplest statement. Think for just a moment! When you read the title of this article, what was your reaction? Do you really think one would ever become an Adventist (or any other denominational title) by reading the Book of Mormon? Has there ever been even one occasion where anyone ever became a Mormon without this book being part of his teaching? The truth is that it takes more than the Bible to make one a Mormon.

No if that is true, would one ever become a Seventh-Day Adventist without being taught by another Adventist or reading literature published by them? In order to become an Adventist, the writings of Ellen G. White must be taught. Think about it! It takes more than the Bible to make one a Seventh-Day Adventist.

I once asked a Jehovah's Witness the following, "If I just read the Bible for the entirety of my life, would I ever become a Jehovah's Witness?" His answer was amazing. "The odds against it happening are one-in-a-million." He missed the odds—it would never happen—but what an admission about what it takes for one to become a Witness. If you just had the Bible, you would never arrive at the teachings of the Witnesses!

Now apply that to all religions. What influences must there be in one's life to be a Catholic? A Methodist? A Christian Scientist? A Seventh-Day Baptist (yes, they do exist right here in this county)? An Episcopal? A Baptist? A Presbyterian? Any denomination?

Now think of the following. What would one become if he just read the Bible? What would govern his morality? What would he believe about worship? What would he teach his neighbors? What religious name would he wear? What would he call the church?

You know, when it all began, all those early Christians had was the teaching of the apostles and prophets, and there was no denominations. Now since we have those same teachings, wonder what would happen if we just read the Bible alone! Think about it!

THANK YOU

A great big thank you goes to Joyce Popplewell for purchasing the power outage flashlights located in the classrooms and other locations.

"I REALLY DIDN'T MEAN IT"

By David Sproule

How many times has someone hurt your feelings and then said, "I really didn't mean it"? How many times has someone made a commitment to you, promising they would do something, and then later recanted by saying, "I really didn't mean it"? Amazing how flippantly we can use our tongues to make certain statements and then, when caught in a quandary, try to escape.

Aren't you glad that God doesn't operate that way! When God says something, you can count on it. Peter said, "The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness..." (2 Peter 3:9). Paul and John said, "God is faithful" (1 Cor. 1:9; 10:13; 1 John 1:9). The Psalmist recorded, "The entirety of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever" (Psa. 119:160).

When God makes you a promise, He does not do so flippantly. He will not try to escape from it, He will not say, "I really didn't mean it." God means what he says and stands by it!

CY & STEPHANIE WRITE...

A very special thank you to you all for allowing us to come and share the work we are doing in TZ.

We appreciate so much your continued support. We solicit your prayers always.

We pray God's blessings on all of you. Come and see us in Africa.

KEN UPCHURCH WRITES...

Sometimes it occurs to me how desperate the world is for just someone to say a kind word to them or encourage them along the way. That might seem strange to you in a thank you note setting but for all the right reasons each of you that support this work in whatever way you do, by prayers, financial, physical or through the support of men and women on the ground in Tanzania are encouraging, building up, helping folks to hear, learn and obey the gospel of Christ which by any measure is all the Good News anyone could hope for in this life.

Thank you so much for your faithfulness, for your loving kindness and for being friends that indeed are the salt and light of the earth. You are true friends of the lost and you are our dearest friends by way of engaging with us in this tremendously good work called TZ 2000.

May you always know that we aspire to always do the next right thing and that your love and devotion to doing the Lord's will is a constant encouragement to all of us. You are in the truest sense a Blessing on and in each of our lives, and we are so thankful for God's gracious providence that has brought us together in this work. Thank you so very much.
 Just Ken
