DAVID DIXON WRITES...

Dear brethren:

Greetings once again from the Memphis School of Preaching. Life is in full swing here as busy days are upon us. The Annual Memphis School of Preaching Lectureships are this month and there is much work to be done. I am student co-coordinator this year which means I follow around the coordinator learning what I will have to do next year. I am very excited about it. The last Sunday of March is always the beginning of lectureship week here. The preceding Saturday is an annual youth day. I encourage everyone to come be part of these events. They are uplifting and edifying. The sermons are all broadcast live over the internet (www.msop.org). Even if you cannot be here in person, you can still listen in.

The week after lectureships, we students will be participating in another set of campaigns around the country. I am going to Pickwick, Tennessee. Others will be working in South Carolina, Mississippi, and Georgia. I always look forward to those weeks. We get the opportunity to put into practice the lessons we are learning.

Rachel is doing well. We have made our peace and are learning that there are opportunities to help others even in our distress. Thanks again for all your prayers.

Grades for second quarter were distributed last week. Here are mine.

Hebrew History	A
Numbers and Deuteronomy	A
Life of Christ II.....	A+
Hermeneutics.....	A+

The time is flying while we are here. We look forward to opportunities to serve you all. Thank you for all that you do for us. We love you all.

In Christian service,
 David Dixon
