UNNAMED, BUT NOT UNNOTICED

By Levi Sides, Jasper, AL

"For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name...shall not lose his reward" (Mark 9:41).

In an Army Hospital ward there were several World War II veterans reminiscing about their many bouts with death. One veteran stated: "I owe my life to a medic who treated me under heavy fire. Later that day he was killed in battle. I do not know his name, but I shall never forget him". Many heroes remain anonymous, but their deeds will always be remembered by someone.

Did you know that there are thousands of unnamed people in the Bible? Many of them can be called "God's Anonymous Children". Too often we fix our attention exclusively on the greater characters of the Bible, yet the vast host of the inconspicuous and unnamed has been preserved by the pen of inspiration as being worthy of our meditation. The unknown saints—unknown, that is, to human fame—must not be passed by. While full consideration must be given to those God called into the limelight, we dare not ignore others who remain in the shadow of obscurity or anonymity.

The writer of Hebrews depicts a great company of noble believers who were stoned, sawn asunder, tempted, slain with the sword, afflicted, tormented, made to wander in mountains, deserts, in dens, and in caves, had trials of cruel mocking, and scourging and bonds and imprisonments (Hebrews 11:36-40). We are not told anything else about them, and they are simply referred to as "others" (Hebrews 11:37). Yet we can be certain that God knows who they were and that some day He will honor them for their faith and loyalty to the Savior.

Do you feel insignificant and almost worthless because you have not received public recognition or your name has never appeared in a publication or has never been shown in lights on a marquee? Don't be discouraged! If you love the Lord and are doing your best for Him, you can be sure that He takes special notice of your faithful service. Someday you will be rewarded, and He will acknowledge you personally. Though you may be "unnamed" here on earth, you will not go "unnoticed" in Heaven. The poet has said:

The World may not thank you or notice your walk,
Yea, few here may care when you die;
But Jesus will mark all your labor of love,
And give you His praise by and by.

A LITTLE GIRL'S LETTER

Preachinghelp.org

Yesterday, several good friends and I were sitting in the office of a neurosurgeon. We listened to him as he explained why he left a thriving practice in a large metropolis to come to a much smaller hospital in our area of the country. He said it was all because of a letter he received.

You see, he had been so busy with his job, he told us that he literally had not seen his little girl in three weeks. Then one night when he came home from work, there was a letter by his bed from his 11-year-old daughter. It was a letter in which this little girl told her daddy that she missed him and wanted more of his time. She acknowledged to her daddy that he had an important job, but she said, "Daddy, doing the 'right' thing is sometimes the 'hard' thing to do." It was at this point that this successful neurosurgeon decided he wanted to be a father first. So he left his practice and moved his family to South-Central Kentucky.

I couldn't help but be touched by this doctor's story. Before me was a man who knew that there are things in life that are more important than fame, ego, work, and money. It doesn't take a "brain surgeon" to be able to identify proper values and priorities in life. Sometimes, Little 11 year-old girls who miss their daddy can discern those things. The question I have for you is, have you discerned these same truths? Give it some thought.

ANDREY KOSTINE WRITES...

Dear Brethren,

We would like to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your support. We appreciate you so much and all that you do for the kingdom of God. We thank God for you everyday and pray for you that God would bless and keep you. Thank you for making it possible for us to be here and equip ourselves with the knowledge that we will need for the work of our Lord.

Forest Hill lectureships are coming up this month. We are excited and are working hard to prepare for this event. Our wives are working hard on the lessons and materials for the children which they will keep. We hope that if you are able to come, that you do so, we will be glad to have you.

Please pray for the Restoration Trip that will take place the first week of April; that we may have a safe trip and that all goes well.

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. (Rom. 15:13).

In Christian Love,
