KEN UPCHURCH WRITES...

Hope spring is popping out where you are. We have it looking at us here in South Mississippi. We often pray that we might be worthy of your sacrifice and faithfulness and we certainly know that God has blessed us with the most wonderful supporters on this planet, but how do you thank people that have gone above and beyond what even your own expectations were? Can't be done by this poor excuse for a thank you note; I can tell you that straight up.

We love you for a lot of reasons but mostly we love you because you love the lost of Tanzania and you have proved that over and over again with your generous and loving support of TZ 2000.

We are on the back side of a 20-year plan that has been everything we expected but has grown far beyond our vision. It has grown because of people just like you who have really stepped up to the plate and allowed the Lord to use you through this work to reach the lost. Thank you could never be enough to say about how wonderful you are and how grateful and thankful we are for you.

May God continue to bless us all as we strive to serve and teach the lost no matter where we live. You are a tremendously wonderful blessing to this work and every single soul that has been reached because of your giving, loving sacrificing and caring for the lost. Thank you so much. God bless you in every way.

Just Ken
