You know who they are. They're all just like you.

David Sproule

October 2009

Have you met them? They're young, rowdy, disrespectful and immature. You know who they are, right?

Have you met them? They're old, cranky, stuck in their ways and not willing to try anything new. You know who they are, right?

Have you met them? They've got multiple tattoos and piercings, unusual hair styles and fashion choices. You know who they are, right?

Have you met them? They're those good ole Southern folks, who some would characterize as “backwoods” or “country,” due to the way they talk or live. You know who they are, right?

Have you met them? They're those city folks, who some would characterize as “highfalutin” or “uppity,” due to their style of dress or living. You know who they are, right?

Have you met them? They're kind of the ordinary, plain, boring type people. Nothing unusual about them to make them stand out. You know who they are, right?

Unfortunately, we put people into categories and make certain judgments about them based upon those categories. People are old, young or middle-aged; rich, poor or middle-class; black, white, Hispanic, Oriental or middle-eastern; fun, boring, cool, nerds or arrogant; etc.

However, God only puts mankind into two categories with one thing in common. In God's eyes, man is either saved or lost (Luke 19:10; 1 Tim. 2:4); man is either on the narrow way or traveling the broad way (Matt. 7:13-14); man will either spend an eternity in heaven or an eternity in hell (Matt. 25:31-46). Yet, when God looks at mankind (no matter the age, race, education level, personality traits, etc.), He finds one thing that every person on earth has in common—the thing that God has given to each of us—an eternal soul.

Everyone you meet in the world has an eternal soul. Everyone you meet in the church has an eternal soul. Every “strange/weird person” you meet has an eternal soul. As Christians, we must see souls! We must see souls in need of the gospel (no matter what they look like or what “category” they might resemble). We must see souls of our brethren who need encouragement and love (no matter what they have in their background or what “category” they might fit). As Christians, we must esteem others better than ourselves (Phil. 2:3-4), but we must not esteem anyone better or anyone worse than others (James 2:9). Souls matter! INVITE YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS TO OUR FAMILY DAY Sunday, May 11

Today is our start date to begin inviting our friends and family to our family day. We have invitations printed up for you to hand out to your family and friends. The cards are designed for you to tear off one end with their name and address on it and put it into the basket on the table by bulletin boards. When the time gets closer we will send them a personal letter from the church to remind them of the family day.

Every visitor will receive a welcome packet with some things about West Side. We will follow up on all our visitors and encourage them to return and become a member of the West Side family.

Let's all invite and fill this building with our family and friends so that they may hear the message that Mike will present. It is going to be a great day!

Larry R.
