WEST SIDE WINDOW

Volume 20, Issue 28

July 13, 2014

The following article is a reprint originally submitted by George Welker on December 13, 1998. It is published again at the request of a Sister in Christ. Brother George was a beloved and respected elder at West Side for many years. The suggestion at the conclusion of the article is his.

The Ten Commandments of "How to Get Along with People"

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low, persuasive voice. How you say it often counts more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly and keep them faithfully, no matter what it costs you.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If criticism is needed, criticize helpfully, not spitefully.
4. Be interested in others—interest in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and families. Rejoice with those who rejoice; with those who weep, mourn. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel that you regard him as one of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries and disappointments under a smile. Laugh at good stories and learn to tell them.
6. Preserve an open mind on all debatable questions. Discuss but don't argue. It is a mark of superior minds to disagree yet be friendly.
7. Let your virtues, if you have any, speak for themselves and refuse to talk of others' vices. Discourage gossip. Make it a rule to say nothing of another unless it is something good.

- 8. Be aware of another’s feelings. Wit and humor at another’s expense is rarely worth the effort and may hurt where least expected.
- 9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Simply live so that nobody will believe them. Disordered nerves and a bad digestion are common causes of backbiting.
- 10. Don’t be too anxious about your dues (what is due you). Do your work, be patient, keep your disposition sweet, forge self and you will be rewarded.

Taken from “Organized Personal Work” by Mid F. McKnight of Abilene, Texas.

Suggestion:

“Put a copy over your kitchen sink and read it while you wash dishes. Put a copy on the table by the bed and read it before retiring at night. Put a copy on your desk, in your automobile (but don’t read it while driving), in a frame and place it on the wall.”

Summer Devotions

High School and College age youth will meet for a devotional each Thursday at Don and Teresa Allison’s home, 7p-9p. Boys bring soda pop and girls bring snacks.
