BOBBY LIDDELL WRITES...

Dear brethren:
On June 20, another class of preachers, ready to go forth with the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ, graduated from the Memphis School of Preaching. No doubt, there were numerous ones who influenced them, and who cheered them on, to become Gospel preachers. We are deeply grateful for every one who helped them reach this point in life. Thank you for all you have done to assist them to realize their goal, and dream, to preach the Truth, to saving of men's souls.
It may well be that some of these men received, very early on in life, the encouragement of family members to begin then, to prepare for a lifetime of service to the Lord. Some, from their youth, may have heard faithful proclaimers of the message from God, and wanted to follow in their footsteps. Others may have, after admonishment from godly elders, thought more soberly about their lives, and determined they could not possibly spend their days in any more noble, productive, and beneficial ways, than to preach. Each positive influence for good reinforced their decisions, and for that we are thankful.
We need more preachers; therefore, let us all continue to encourage young men to preach, and to encourage young women to become wives who help their husbands to preach. Who knows what a word spoken, an opportunity given, or a nudge in the right direction may mean to a young fellow contemplating the decisions in life before him?
On behalf of those who just graduated, and those who just began their studies, thanks, dear brethren, for all you do in the Kingdom, and thank you for encouraging and supporting men who want to prepare themselves to preach. We love and appreciate you.
Sincerely,
Bobby Liddell, Director

DAVID DIXON WRITES...

Dear brethren:
This summer session has begun here at the Memphis School of Preaching. There are three classes scheduled: The Gospel Plan of Salvation, Biblical archaeology, and logic. Logic is a class and a topic to which I have looked forward since before I came to school. We had a week off before summer school began and we have two weeks after it is over; then begins our second and final year. I am looking forward to it immensely.
We got to go home and visit with friends in the week before summer school. That was a pleasant experience. It was a refreshing break, but then I was ready to hit the books again. Rachel and Micah went to visit her family in Jacksonville, FL during that time and are still there. I am ready to have them back.
Here are my grades for fourth quarter:
Second Corinthians and James.....A+
Acts of the Apostles.....A
General Epistles of Peter, John, Jude....A+
English .....A+
Church History.....A+
Preacher and His work.....A
We again thank you for all that you do for us. After having completed a year and having seen graduation, I know how precious these two years are. This school is doing a great work for the Lord, and you are helping to make that happen.
In Christian service,
David Dixon
