On Courage

--"Facing it--always facing it. That is the way to get through. Just face it."

J. Conrad

-- "The first rule is to keep an untroubled spirit. The second is to look things in the face and know them for what they are. "

Marcus Aurelius

--Courage is a quietness not martial music made, but born of facing up to life, even when afraid."

Good News Abounds

--Heather and Rachel became aunts this past week with the birth of their niece, Myah Aspen Chambers, who was born in Vermont. The proud father is Darren Chambers who is Heather and Rachel's big brother. Myah was a whopping 9 lbs and 21 inches long and she did have some respiratory complications at birth.

For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity from the flesh but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, take care lest you be consumed by one another."

Galatians 5:13-15

How Do You Smell?

Do you know what you look like when you dress like the world? The world.

Do you know what you sound like when you speak like the world? The world.

Do you know what you “smell” like when you commune with the world? The world.

Do you know what you become like when you act like the world? The world.

Note the following combined verses from the Bible concerning the Christian’s relationship to the world and worldly things, and consider the way you dress, speak, associate, and act:

“Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God...Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him...And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever...For whatever is born of God overcomes the world...But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world...Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this:...to keep oneself unspotted from the world...that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world.” (Verses in order of wording: Jas. 4:4; 1 John 2:15, 17; 1 John 5:4; Gal. 6:14; Jas. 1:27; Phil. 2:15).

Christians are to be separate from the world and her lost ways. “Therefore ‘Come out from among them And be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you.’” (1 Cor. 6:17).

Yes, we are in the world, but we should never be of the world.

You Better Watch Your Mouth--God is

Words are just words. Right? How is it that some words can be classified as “acceptable” to speak and other words are “unacceptable” to speak? How can most words in the English language be normal, ordinary words but a select few be pulled out and deemed “vulgar” or “profane”? If God does not specify which words are appropriate and which ones are not, how can I know the difference?

Obviously, with words having different meanings in different languages around the world and in different cultures throughout the centuries, the Bible could not possibly list all profane words for all languages in all cultures for all time. But, God does categorize, in principle, words that He deems unacceptable, and with careful and honest study, “The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable” (Prov. 10:32). You know words that fit the following.

God condemns “corrupt” words (Eph. 4:29). These are words that are rotten, “bad, evil, unwholesome, in a moral sense.” You know words like this.

God condemns “foolish talking” (Eph. 5:4). These are words that are “foolish, dull, stupid.”

God condemns “coarse jesting” (Eph. 5:4). This denotes a “risqué wit” that utters vulgar or off-color jokes.

God condemns “filthy language” (Col. 3:8). “Filthiness” is condemned in Ephesians 5:4 as a “behavior that flouts social and moral standards, shamefulness, obscenity.” In Colossians 3:8, the focus is on “speech of a kind that is generally considered in poor taste, obscene speech, dirty talk” that is considered shameful.

God condemns words that “allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness” (2 Pet. 2:18). These are words that paint pictures and lead to thoughts of “unbridled lust, indecency, wantonness” and illicit sexual desires and conduct.

God condemns “malicious words” (3 John 10). These are words that are “morally or socially worthless, wicked, evil, bad, base, vicious, degenerate.”

Knowing that God is aware of every syllable that proceeds from my tongue and that I will be judged for every word I speak (Matt. 12:36), my prayer should be, “Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer” (Psa. 19:14).

God can and will help you!
